

Newsletter October 2014

Welcome to the October edition of the WMA Newsletter. There are lots happening both at the Pirates Tavern and at Seaworks leading up to Christmas.

Annual General Meeting

The Annual General Meeting will be held on Sunday 23 November 2014 at 12 Midday at The Pirates Tavern. The bar will open immediately following the meeting along with a sausage sizzle. Members will be entitled to a free sausage on production of their Members card.

Under the model rules all positions will be declared vacant and nominations and elections will be undertaken. Nomination forms along with a Proxy Form are attached. If you are interested in nominating please complete the forms as soon as possible and forward to mauriceb56@optusnet.com.au. We are looking for people with some business acumen along with an interest in Maritime History.

New Year's Eve (NYE)

For those who attended last year's NYE party will remember how good a night it was. We are holding it again this year. We are currently working out the cost so stay tuned for the details shortly. The band will be Ratlin' Cane. Members may have already seen and enjoyed their music.

Membership

If you haven't renewed your Membership NOW is the time to do so. We have exciting music and great nights coming up at The Pirates Tavern. You receive 10% of drinks, invites to special events, Members nights with lots of prizes and free music at The Tavern.

Functions

We are now fully booked for Saturday night functions but if you want to hold a Christmas breakup or small mini functions we can arrange to hold those and take the worry out of the organising. Please call Wendy on 0403 702 734 for further information.

Coffee and Tea

Don't forget we have Coffee and Tea at The Tavern. Sunday ambles down through Seaworks and then stop for Coffee at The Tavern.

This Weekends Music Festival

The Pirates Tavern will be open as usual on Friday but there is no music. 3RRR will be broadcasting live from The Tavern on Saturday. Members will be allowed into the Tavern via the rear entrance but cannot enter the Music Festival unless paid for as this is a ticketed event. Sunday is the Blurst Festival and again Members will be able to access the Tavern from Ann Street. You will need to produce your Members card to gain access. Parking is restricted.

Working Bee

Seaworks will be holding a working bee on site on the 25th and 26th of October. There are many tasks to be undertaken and we are looking for volunteers to assist. Jobs range from painting, weed removal, rubbish cleanup, general cleanup, downpipe replacements to many other small jobs. If anybody can spare some time on either or both these days your assistance would be greatly appreciated. We will have a BBQ for the volunteers. If you can help could you please email me on mauriceb56@optusnet.com.au with any relevant skills so that we can allocate the most suitable job.
